

Silk conversion for ‘The Humble Sampler: Harriett Turner 1868’ by Mojo Stitches

This is a colour conversion I’ve created using the beautiful hand-dyed silks from Cascade House Embroidery, now available in my Etsy store. As it is a conversion, not all of the colours are exactly the same: most are very good matches however.

The match for Weeks Dye Works ‘Dove’ is more of a pearl grey, and the match for Weeks ‘Chrysanthemum’ is slightly brighter. Feel free to swap those out if you want a closer match to the original. And tag me so I can cheer on your progress! @mojostitches on Instagram 😊
